

He is not ashamed to call us family: we are all Bruno

Brett Rayl
Ambassadors Sunday Morning Community
August 28, 2022

Hebrews 2:10-13

¹⁰ For it was fitting that he, for whom and by whom all things exist, in bringing many sons to glory, should make the founder of their salvation perfect through suffering.¹¹ For he who sanctifies and those who are sanctified all have one source.¹² That is why he is not ashamed to call them brothers,¹³ saying,

"I will tell of your name to my brothers;
in the midst of the congregation I will sing your praise."

¹³ And again,

"I will put my trust in him."

And again,

"Behold, I and the children God has given me."

Discussion Questions:

1. What does it mean for Jesus to call us family?
2. What does it mean for my relationship with Christ?
3. What does it mean for me when I experience suffering and hard times?
4. What does it mean for how I relate to others like friends, coworkers, and family member?